C. P. Conlon of Middlebury recently sold to J. H. Mead & Son of West Rutland a Holstein-Friesian heifer calf, one of the celebrated Pontiac Korndyke blood, at the handsome price of $200. This heifer was one of the promising pair of calves which Mr. Conlon exhibited at the last Addison County fair; in fact the sale was negotiated during that time.

The district meeting of the Rebekah assembly will be held Friday evening, October 13. President John M. Thomas and Professor Collins of Middlebury college will address the meeting and it is hoped that many members will be out to greet the speakers and take advantage of this opportunity to hear them. The business meeting will begin promptly at eight.

New street signs have been placed at the corners of the various streets on the west side of the village to replace those recently destroyed by vandals.

thought that she is better than she has been since the original attack.

There has been so much rain in the past three weeks that the farmers who have been saying that they would have but few potatoes to sell this fall are now worrying over the prospect that the potatoes still in the ground will rot with a prospect that the price at wholesale in this section will probably be up to at least $1.50 per bushel.
